Delegate Feedbacks

“The case study was very practical and was closely aligned with real business outcomes, which made the session especially valuable.”

Abhishek Gupta

VP - IT, Dish TV

“It was an excellent and truly amazing experience—especially the workshop and the case study, which stood out as particularly unique and insightful.”

Ritesh Kumar

AVP - Technology

“The overall experience was truly phenomenal. The content throughout the event was equally impressive.”

Vishal Jain

Head - Technology & Security, Del Monte Foods

“The session was very impactful and informative. I learned a lot about what AMD is currently working on. I especially enjoyed the workshop, which was well-organized. Each team was given data and had to prepare case studies based on it, which made the session both engaging and insightful.”

Rajeev Soota

VP - IT, Usha International
